THANKS A BILLION!
You believed. You believed in us. You believed in designing innovative, relevant academic programming and spaces. You believed in creating an incomparably supportive student experience. You believed in growing our extraordinary faculty and staff. You believed that we could. And we did. Thanks a Billion for believing in us.

BUILT
new world-class facilities where our students, faculty, and community gather to live, learn, and grow.

IMPROVED
the lives of both animals and people through meaningful translational medical discoveries and solutions.

CREATED
a home for Rams fans and the community to celebrate all that is special and unique about CSU.

INVESTED
in the new energy economy, creating an equitable transition that will provide greater opportunities for all.

CREATED
a community of support that helps independent students from a variety of backgrounds achieve their goals.

INSPIRED
fresh perspectives and wonder that strengthened engagement with thriving arts community.