For more information on endowed and term chairs and professorships, please visit giving.colostate.edu/endowment-minimum-policy, or call (970) 491-1895.

For more information on gift, endowment and fee policies, please visit giving.colostate.edu/gift-stewardship.

If you need assistance with your gift, or to learn more about gift, endowment and fee policies, please visit giving.colostate.edu/gift-stewardship.

Colorado State University
An equal-access and equal-opportunity University
Endowed and annual support for chairs and professorships are vital to Colorado State University. They help recruit and retain the best leaders who keep CSU competitive with other top universities, strengthen our programs and reputation, and provide a world-class education for students that will last a lifetime. Funding is made possible through current giving (cash or securities), or through a commitment in your estate plan.

ENDOWED SUPPORT

Presidential Chair
($6 million minimum)

The title of Presidential Chair is the highest and most prestigious honor CSU may award to a faculty or administrative professional member. Annual allocations from the endowment are expected to fund the salary, benefits, research, and operational costs for the position.

University Chair
($3 million minimum)

The reputations of University Chair recipients reflect their special research contributions and efforts in shaping the understanding of their fields. Annual allocations from the endowment are expected to fund the salary, benefits, and operational costs for the position.

College Chair
($1.5 million minimum)

College Chairs are expected to be of national stature with an established track record of achievement. The annual allocations from College Chairs supplement salaries and/or operations of these accomplished leaders.

University Professorship
($750,000 minimum)

The achievements and qualifications of University Professors are expected to be extremely high, setting them apart from the majority of their colleagues. Earnings from these endowments supplement faculty salary lines.

College Professorship
($375,000 minimum)

Typically held by gifted faculty members and administrative professionals whose accomplishments indicate great potential, College Professors are focused on honing their teaching skills and carving out areas of research or performance. Earnings from these endowments supplement faculty salary lines.

ANNUAL SUPPORT

Chairs and Professorships can be supported on an annual basis with a five-year commitment.

Presidential Chair
($256,000 each year for five years, totaling $1,280,000)

The title of Presidential Term Chair is the highest and most prestigious honor CSU may award to a faculty or administrative professional member.

University Chair
($128,000 each year for five years, totaling $640,000)

The reputations of University Term Chair recipients reflect their special creative and/or research contributions as well as their efforts in shaping the understanding of their fields.

College Chair
($64,000 each year for five years, totaling $320,000)

Recipients of these chairs must have demonstrated significant contributions to their fields through exceptional teaching, research, leadership and/or scholarly excellence.

For these positions, the college or unit may commit an appropriate level of funding to cover salary, benefits, and operational costs, or have the full base salary line covered.

University Professorship
($32,000 each year for five years, totaling $160,000)

This designation is intended to enhance faculty and administrative professional staff positions held by scholars/teachers with outstanding qualifications. The achievements and qualifications of University Professors are expected to be extremely high, setting them apart from the majority of their colleagues.

College Professorship
($16,000 each year for five years, totaling $80,000)

Typically held by gifted faculty and administrative professional staff members whose accomplishments indicate great potential. Their efforts are focused on honing their teaching skills and on carving out areas of research or performance.