Each year, the Colorado State University Alumni Association has the privilege of awarding scholarships to deserving students who exemplify principles that strengthen the Rams family: service to each other and their communities, leadership grounded in humility and hard-won experience, achievement in their chosen fields of study, and a stalwart commitment to making our world a better place through greater opportunity for all.

Your generosity makes these scholarships possible. Your kindness helps students overcome financial challenges. And your belief in the future of others makes me proud to be a Ram. Thank you.

Be well, and Go Rams!
