A MESSAGE FROM THE VICE PRESIDENT

Every day, we strive to uphold our land-grant mission by creating more equitable access to the Colorado State experience for all students, regardless of their socioeconomic backgrounds. By providing critical financial support to students who need it most, we have opened the doors to a world-class education for students who may not have previously considered attending CSU. Through scholarships, we have been able to help more students navigate the hallways of higher education and earn a college degree.

LESLIE TAYLOR
Vice President for Enrollment & Access

Our donors' generosity makes this transformational work possible, and it has defined what CSU means to me and what our division's mission is all about. On behalf of the Division of Enrollment and Access, thank you for helping us be the best land-grant institution that we can possibly be. The stewardship of your scholarships is of utmost importance to us, and we are forever grateful for your support.
